OREGON STATE BAR
LAW PRACTICE MANAGEMENT SECTION

The Law Practice Management Section of the Oregon State Bar emphasizes the administration and managerial side of the profession of practicing law with the following mission:

- To assist sole practitioners and lawyers in small, medium, and large law firms to develop better law practice and firm management skills.
- To enable law firms to improve their profitability in a competitive environment.
- To help lawyers and law firms to adapt to technological change.
- To help lawyers and law firms to improve their client service and attorney-client relationships.
- To provide national law office management resources to members of the section.
- To work closely with the Oregon Chapter of the Association of Legal Administrators, the Professional Liability Fund, the New Lawyers Division, and the Sole Practitioners and Small Firm Section in realizing such goals.
